SBA 8(a) Program – Award a Sole Source Contract to Info Gain Consulting in Six Easy Steps

The Small Business Administration (SBA) 8(a) Sole Source vehicle enables agencies to engage in direct buy contracts with certified contractors. As a Contract Officer, you can award a sole-source 8(a) contract to Info Gain Consulting (IGC) if:

- ✓ You determine that IGC is responsible and can perform the work.
- ✓ The resulting contract can be awarded at a fair market price.
- ✓ The government estimate does not exceed $7.5 million for manufacturing requirements or $4.5 million for all other requirements.

See 8\(a\) Sole Source Limitations at FAR 19.805-1\(a\)\(2\)

01

Identify Requirements

Federal agency determines the services required to satisfy mission needs.

04

SBA Review and Acceptance

SBA reviews worksheet, verifies that Info Gain Consulting is eligible for the 8(a) program, and sends letter of acceptance to acquisition official.

02

Decision to Sole Source

Acquisition official decides to establish a sole source contract in order to save time and achieve best value.

05

Negotiations and Scope Definition

Acquisition official informs Info Gain Consulting that they may start project scope planning and negotiations on joint development of project plan.

03

SBA Worksheet

Acquisition official sends SBA an intent to award sole-source letter describing the project, and identifying Info Gain Consulting as the company to perform the service.

06

Contract Award

Sole source contract is awarded to Info Gain Consulting, once mutually acceptable terms are negotiated.
